

On June 2, please maintain the current ownership regulations. Media consolidation does not serve the public interest. The restriction of opinion created by single ownership of print and broadcast media in any market (but particularly in small ones) will be catastrophic.